SALISBURY'S IDEAS.

England's Premier Speaks at Lord Mayor's Banquet.

NO MENTION OF SEALING QUESTION.

The Franco-British Troubles In West Africa Discussed and the Attitude of the Government Explained--The European Concert.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The brilliancy of the gathering at the lord mayor's banquet at the Guildhall last night was somewhat marred by the tokens of mourning for her royal highness the late Duchess of Teck. A majority of the ladies present wore gowns of black or dark gray.

The entrance of the Marquis of Salisbury, the prime minister, and Mr. Arthur J. Balfour, the first lord of the treasury, was the signal for loud applause, but the reception tendered the foreign diplomats was of the tamest character as compared with the enthusiasm which last year greeted the then ambassador of the United States, Mr. Thomas F. Bayard.

After the usual loyal and formal toasts, the Marquis of Lansdowne, secretary of state for war, responded for "The Army." In the course of his speech he eulogized "the gallant work being done on our Indian frontier, especially by the troops of those native rulers who have long wished to stand shoulder to shoulder with us." He then proceeded to point out the necessity for an increase of the army to meet "the requirements of imperial expansion."

The Marquis of Salisbury, on rising, was greeted with several minutes of continuous cheering. He began by deploring the engineers' dispute, which, he said, "involves the future prosperity or disaster of the country," but added that he was glad to say there was "a renewed prospect that the board of trade's intervention would prove successful." His lordship read a telegram from the queen, asking him to express how deeply her majesty felt the marvelous display of loyalty to the crown and to her person at the diamond jubilee festivities.

that there is a limit to the exercise of this particular set of feelings, and we cannot allow our plain rights to be overridden."

His lordship then passed to speak of the situation in the east. He said the history of the past year was that the European concert had failed to prevent Greece from going to war, but had succeeded in preserving the peace of Europe. It was, he submitted, a great and praiseworthy achievement for the concert to avert that calamity. He continued, "If the concert exerted all its force to prevent Greece from going to war the responsibility might have rested upon it of erasing Greece from the map." With reference to the Cretan question, his lordship observed that this was still unsettled, but added, "The concert of Europe is like a steam roller, with great power, but little speed."

The lord mayor's procession in the afternoon took place in a drizzling rain and a heavy fog, but large crowds of people lined the route despite the disagreeable weather. The decorations were more ambitious than usual, consisting mainly of triumphal arches, Venetian masks, floral festoons and a liberal display of bunting. A more striking proof of the popularity of the yearly pageant known as the lord mayor's procession has not been given in a long time, due very largely to the brilliant year of office of the retiring chief magistrate, the Right Hon. Sir George Fandel Phillips.

Crozier Boys Caught in Theft.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 10.—Harold L. Graham, who claims to be a graduate of King's college, in Nova Scotia, and to have come here for the purpose of studying law at Brown university, is in the toils of the police on a charge of stealing from other students. Richard Crozier's sons caught him by clever detective work. When accused, he made a clean breast of the thefts. He was held for trial on Friday.

One Man Spent No Money at All.

ALBANY, Nov. 10.—Eben R. Brown, the successful candidate for senator in the Thirty-fifth district, certified to the secretary of state that his election expenses amounted to $250. Ezra Tuttle, candidate of the United Democracy for supreme court judge in the Second judicial district, certified that he spent no money whatsoever in the furtherance of his candidacy or election.

Suing Prince Bismarck.

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—A man named Lange, who for 20 years has been Prince Bismarck's head forester in the Sackenburg, and who was pensioned last summer, has begun suit against the prince to enforce the payment of an additional pension, which the ex-chancellor refused to grant him.

Doctor Caught Counterfeiting.

ATLANTA, Nov. 10.—Dr. Thomas Edgar Rogers, a well known physician of Haralson county, was brought to the city, charged with counterfeiting. In his house was found the complete paraphernalia of a counterfeiter. He manufactured goldpieces of the denomination of $10.

POTTER IS A WINNER

The Divine Defeats Baptist Mission Society.

HE HAD BEEN EJECTED BY FORCE.

Justice Roesch, in Giving Judgment, Uses Strong Terms to Denounce the Violence That Was Used Against the Reverend Gentleman.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Rev. Dr. Daniel C. Potter, the former pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, Second avenue and Tenth street, gained a victory in a decision rendered yesterday by Justice George F. Roesch, in the Fourth district court, restoring him to his right of possession to the three rooms in the churchhouse, 182 Second avenue, occupied by him as a studio, from which he was forcibly ejected on March 3 last, after a siege which lasted about three weeks. The justice also awarded to Miss Julia Ross possession of the third, fourth and fifth floors and the hallways leading thereto. Dr. Potter and Miss Ross are granted $50 each as costs.

Dr. Potter was the pastor for several years of the Tabernacle Baptist church, and in a financial way was assisted by John D. Rockefeller, who held mortgages on the property. Some years ago he took into his family Miss Julia Ross, now a young woman, who is charged with being responsible for the separation between the pastor and his wife and for the bringing of an action in the supreme court for an absolute divorce by Mrs. Potter. That suit is still pending.

The church became more involved when Mr. Rockefeller refused to lend his assistance longer, and finally foreclosure proceedings were taken in the supreme court. The church was sold to satisfy the liens.

Miss Ross, who had been the matron of the Young Women's home attached to the church, obtained a lease of the church house from the trustees of the church, and she leased to Dr. Potter three rooms on the second floor for his studio. The New York City Baptist Mission society obtained control of the property and endeavored to get Dr. Potter to leave. He would not move, and it was only after a siege lasting three weeks that he was removed by force. Miss Ross followed him a day later.

Both instituted proceedings for forcible entry and detainer, and during the trial 10 witnesses were examined.

In his decision Justice Roesch, after telling how the door of Dr. Potter's apartment was forced open and how men "dropped him in his smoking jacket, slippers and skullcap down the main stairway of the church house through the front chapel door and out into the arway in front of the church proper and forced him on the sidewalk," says:

"It is not almost inconceivable that such occurrences could have happened, such threats, force and violence been used in a civilized community, in which law and order are presumed to reign supreme and courts of justice are instituted for the hearing and determination of just such controversies as existed between these parties? It needed but a moat and wall to complete the picture of a medieval castle defended and besieged by the rival forces of robber barons. If such acts as have been detailed here are to be accorded the sanction of the law, it will merely become a question of the amount of wealth necessary to hire a force large enough to confiscate property, disregard legal rights and remedies and set at defiance and for naught legal machinery devised by a civilized community for the enforcement and protection of rights of property and of the person."

An appeal from the decision will be taken to the appellate term of the supreme court.

Jewelry Woman Turns Informant.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 10.—Six years ago the body of General Harrington of Abbeville was found floating in Bayou Verdelion. An autopsy showed that he had been murdered, but no evidence could be found as to the murderer. Now Mrs. Horace Guidry testifies that her husband murdered Harrington. She had concealed the guilt of her husband until he had abandoned her for the widow of the man he had murdered. Jealousy prompted her action. Guidry was arrested and is now in jail, charged with murder.

Safe Robbers Took No Chances.

RALEIGH, Nov. 10.—The safe in the Mocksville postoffice was blown open and robbed of $200 half the amount being in money and the rest in stamps. After committing the robbery the party stole a lever car on the Mocksville railroad and rode it out near the Davis school, just west of Winston. It was found yesterday morning lying near the railroad track. The safe blowers cut the telegraph wires in two places to prevent any message being sent out after them.

Dr. Ebenhoch Chosen.

VIENNA, Nov. 10.—Dr. Ebenhoch will be the new president of the lower house of the reichsrath in succession to Dr. Kathrein, who resigned the presidency on Oct. 25 last. Dr. Ebenhoch is a man of the most robust type and of the most determined disposition, and it is expected that his presidency will be marked by a repetition of the violent scenes that have been witnessed in the lower house during the past fortnight.

Crew Had a Hard Time.

TORONTO, Nov. 10.—The schooner Emory, loaded with 200,000 feet of lumber, Captain Andrew Baird, went ashore off Fisherman's point, about two miles east of here, in a blinding snowstorm. She was on her way from Wellar's bay to Toronto. The crew were rescued only after a hard fight.

THORN IS BETRAYED

Mrs. Nack's Lawyer Says She Has Confessed.

WILL TESTIFY AGAINST MARTIN.

Beyond the Bare Statement That She Is Willing to Go on the Stand, Emanuel Friend Gives No Details.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Mrs. August Nack, the midwife, jointly indicted with Martin Thorn for the murder of William Guldensuppe, has confessed the crime. She made her statement to District Attorney William J. Youngs in the Queens county jail yesterday afternoon. Her confession tallies in every important detail with the confession made by Thorn to John Gartha, the barber who communicated to the police the information upon which they arrested Thorn. Gartha's statement is in the hands of the prosecution, and Mrs. Nack's testimony will be corroborative of it.

Her confession may insure Thorn's speedy conviction and the expiation of his awful crime in the electric chair.

There were present in the jail when the woman confessed District Attorney Youngs and Emanuel Friend, her counsel. Mr. Youngs took the statement and came at once across the ferry to this city.

Mr. Youngs, in a conversation with a friend with whom he has had the closest political and legal relations, told the story, and Emanuel Friend, Mrs. Nack's lawyer, who was present when the confession was made, confirmed the news.

Beyond the fact that a confession had been made, Mr. Friend would not speak last night.

"I can give no particulars regarding it," he said. "I have placed it in the hands of District Attorney Youngs, and it remains for him to do what he pleases with it. If he chooses to give it out, I have no objection. But it is out of my jurisdiction now, and I would not be dealing fairly with him if I gave you any of its contents."

"I have sent word of the confession out of courtesy to Mr. William F. Howe, chief counsel for Martin Thorn. I sent it tonight by a special messenger, who found Mr. Howe in bed at the Park Avenue hotel and who delivered it to him in person."

"This ends my responsibility in the matter so far as the confession is concerned."

Martin Thorn's cell in the jail was changed just before the confession was made. He left a cell on the east side of the jail when he was taken into court in the afternoon. When he was led back, it was to a cell on the west side of the building.

Two new cellmates were assigned to him. Three sheriffs' deputies patrolled back and forth before the cell and kept a strict watch on the prisoner all night. His razor and other articles remain in the cell.

Mrs. Nack will be a witness for the prosecution and will testify against Thorn in his present trial. This can be announced positively. Her lawyer, Mr. Friend, said so last night, although he refused to enter into details and took precautions to keep himself hidden from reporters.

The brutal stupidity of Mrs. Nack has caused the general impression that if there were any breaking down and consequent confession it would happen in the case of the man Thorn. Although the man stood accused specifically of the actual doing of the murder and the actual performance of the horrible deeds subsequent to the killing, it was the woman who still remained the central figure in the story of the crime. She has been considered the strong character of the two, and she was charged with being the cause, the instigator and the planner of the murder.

The scheme to dismember the corpse and the other plans for hiding the crime were all said to be hers. She was identified as the person who bought the oilcloth in which the body was wrapped. After the arrest of the two it was the woman who played the safe game of silence thoroughly. Thorn talked much, and though he denied much that others allege he said to them, the general weakness of his character was shown. There was no such weakness in the case of the woman.

That she confessed freely was, therefore, more surprising than that the man should have done so.

Progress of Thorn's Trial.

LONG ISLAND CITY, Nov. 10.—The trial of Martin Thorn was continued yesterday. The prisoner looked as usual and unconcerned as on the previous day. District Attorney Youngs presented his statement of the case, which Thorn listened to closely. In all 20 witnesses were examined.

These included the two boys who found the upper portion of the severed trunk in the East river, the policemen who were called to the scene of the discovery, and witnesses who testified to the bringing of that part of the body to the morgue. The discovery of the lower part of the trunk, from which the legs were severed half way between the thighs and knees, was then taken up, and every person who handled it until it was deposited with the morgue keeper was examined, and each one in turn identified the paper, oilcloth and cheesecloth in which the parts were wrapped.

The rest of the afternoon was taken up by the description of those who found and inspected the bundle seen floating at the Brooklyn navy yard, and, as in the other two instances, the carrying of these limbs was traced from the navy yard Cob dock to the New York morgue at Bellevue hospital. Then the morgue keeper was put on the stand, and he testified to the accuracy of several photographs, which he said were true representations of the portions of the body which are now in glass jars, preserved for identification, in the morgue.

NO CHINESE WANTED.

Governor Tanner Will Be Asked to Prevent Them Working in Illinois Mines.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 10.—A remonstrance against allowing Chinese coal miners to be imported into the state for the purpose of mining coal at Wilmington and other towns in place of the striking coal miners will be placed before Governor Tanner in the name of the United Mine Workers of Illinois. The governor will also be asked to co-operate with the state secretary of the Miners' federation in keeping out the coolie labor.

State Secretary W. D. Ryan of the Miners' federation states that if the Chinese are imported and set to work in the northern coalfields, "bodily health will surely result and a r. be instigated over the importation. If Governor Tanner refuses to interfere, Secretary Ryan says the matter will be carried to President McKinley."

To Search Moncolins' Landries.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 10.—The board of health is to investigate the hand laundries here to ascertain their sanitary condition. It is claimed that the hand laundries, particularly those conducted by Chinamen, are breeding places of disease germs. The Chinese method of splashing a mouthful of water over a shirt is the ground for the complaint. There are about 100 Chinese laundries in this city. The Chinamen at a meeting last night denounced the action of the health board. The Chinamen blame the owners of the steam laundries and say the investigation is part of a scheme to drive them out of the business. The Celestials say they will call upon the Chinese consul in New York to intercede in their behalf. They believe they are being persecuted.

YOUNG GOLD HUNTERS.

Wanted to Go to the Klondike, but One of Them Laid In Jail Instead.

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., Nov. 10.—The adventures of four New Rochelle lads, who ran away from their homes several days ago, telling their playmates they were going to the Klondike, have come to an end. The boys are George Boyd, George and Arthur Leary and Julius Burrell, all about 12 years old and sons of old residents of the village.

Their parents notified the police, and Policeman Kelly yesterday found the boys in a freight car at Larchmont. Each had a revolver and several dollars and some provisions stowed away in a box. When they saw Kelly, they locked the door of the car, and it was more than an hour before they weakened and scrambled out.

Before Judge Lambden they said they had been to Washburn, N. J., where they tried for several days to get aboard a freight train. They slept in barns and railroad cars. They had saved $20 between them from selling newspapers, and when arraigned they had $1.63 left. Boyd and the Leary brothers were taken home. Burrell's father said his son was incorrigible, and he was sentenced to the Westchester reformatory.

Not Looking For Trouble.

MADRID, Nov. 10.—In response to a cable message from a nonofficial American source, Senor Sagasta, the premier, has sent the following cable declaration, through Senor Dupuy de Lome, the Spanish minister at Washington: "So far from seeking a pretext to declare war against the United States, Spain would regard it as a great misfortune to be given the occasion for such an unhappy resolution. Animated as she is by the most amicable sentiments toward the great republic, Spain hopes of America that the latter will do its utmost to fortify sentiments of friendship for the sake and welfare of both countries, while at the same time respecting the rights of Spain."

He Failed to Murder Them.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—Charles Gombach, a cigar manufacturer on Norris street, near Fourth, attempted to kill his father-in-law, Frederick Fritz, and the latter's son, Joseph, of 229 North Fourth street, by shooting them. He then sent a bullet through his own brain and died soon after being admitted to the Episcopal hospital. Fritz and his son are beer bottlers and are said to be wealthy. The shooting occurred in Fritz's home and is said to have been due to some dispute over business. The elder Fritz was but slightly wounded, and his son, who severely was not dangerously wounded.

Zahn's Demands Were Modest.

TRENTON, Nov. 10.—John Zahn, a Pole with his wife and five children, appeared at the statehouse and demanded an audience of the governor. He said he wanted $5,000 to take him to the state of Washington, where he and his family belonged. His demand was refused, but a subscription was taken up by a number of citizens, only to meet with a refusal from Zahn. A policeman was called, and Zahn was arrested. The authorities afterward furnished transportation to Philadelphia for him and his family.

Gambling Machines Ruined.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 10.—Superintendent Birmingham of the police department, with Detectives Arnold and Cronan and other police officers, made a raid upon "the nickel in the slot" gambling devices that were located in the big saloons and hotels of this city, with the result that nine were confiscated, and Edward J. Harding, who was manager of the machines, was placed under arrest. The charge against Harding was violation of the law against gaming.

TRUSTEE ARRESTED.

William Caldwell Placed Under $10,000 Bonds.

JASON ROGERS' HEIRS SUING HIM.

It Is Alleged by the Millionaire's Daughters That Caldwell Confessed to Having Misappropriated Large Amounts.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—William Caldwell, formerly proprietor of the Hotel Empire, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Walgreen on lower Broadway. He was taken to the sheriff's office, where he was released on $10,000 bail.

The arrest was made on an order issued by Justice Lawrence of the supreme court. The application was made in consequence of a suit against Mr. Caldwell and Thomas Rogers, as trustees under the will of Jason Rogers, the millionaire locomotive builder, of Paterson, N. J., brought by the heirs, Mrs. Mary J. Westfield and her sister, Flora E. Rogers, to recover from Caldwell and their brother Thomas the sum of $213,890.55, which they say was the deficit missing from the estate on Jan. 1, 1895.

This sum, they say, either Caldwell or their brother, or both jointly, have appropriated to their own use.

Jason Rogers died in Morrisania on Aug. 25, 1865, leaving an estate valued at over $2,000,000. By the will the son, Thomas and the two daughters, Mary J. and Flora, were provided for by trust bequests. Thomas and a brother of the elder Rogers were named as trustees.

In 1885 the latter died, and Caldwell was appointed in his place and has since acted with Thomas. Neither was required to give bonds.

Mrs. Westfield alleges that in May last she hired Charles Dutton, an expert accountant, to examine the accounts of the trustees. She says she found that early in 1893 Caldwell began to withdraw large sums from the trust funds for his own use. These appear on the accounts as "call loans."

She further alleges that on Sept. 22, 1893, the trustees presented their accounts to the surrogate of Westchester county. In them they charged themselves with having in hand $553,373.82. This did not, however, contain an item of $25,000, which Caldwell had taken for his own use. There was also another "call loan" item of $19,823 which did not appear.

She alleges that in December, 1895, Caldwell confessed to her brother Thomas that he had misappropriated large amounts from the trust funds and that he turned over his interest in the Hotel Empire and other property to make restitution.

However, as all this property was heavily mortgaged the hotel alone having a lien of $510,000 against it, almost no equity was derived from it, and the deficit still stands.

Postmasters Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The following fourth class postmasters have been appointed: Pennsylvania—Hokendauqua, John Fullmer; New York—Arcadia, John Dill; Cullman, Ida M. Smith; Boonville, George W. Colard; Brasher Center, W. W. Wilson; Pisen, Merritt W. Eells; Chatham Center, Andrew Van Alstyne; Florence, James Orr; Gorham, N. B. Cook; Hilton, Minnie Adams; Ira, E. A. Ormiston; West Camden, John H. Taylor; West Meredith, Mrs. J. L. Everett; Wheatville, Charles Dye; Woodbourne, John H. Kneip.

A Blaze at Vanderbilt's.

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 10.—The parties in the dining room of the Rhoda House, on Bellevue avenue, occupied by Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., caught fire this noon, and though extinguished by the servants of the house the flames and smoke caused a damage of $133. Mrs. Vanderbilt, while endeavoring to pull down the hangings, had her hands burned, though not severely. The hangings caught from an overheated register above a hot furnace. The house is owned by Mrs. John H. Davis.

Laurier In Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and party arrived here yesterday afternoon and took quarters at the Sheraton. The members of the party are Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, Sir Louis and Lady Davies, Miss Ethel Davies, Dr. J. M. Macdon, Mr. R. M. Vender, Mr. R. Bonneau and Mr. H. B. Williams. Sir Wilfrid asked to be shown to all interviewers. During the evening Prof. Geo. Thompson, the British socialist expert, called on the premier and his assistants.

Yellow Fever Subsiding.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 10.—Yellow fever continues on the decrease, and the board of health is elated over the prospect of an early termination of the scare which has so badly crippled commerce. The business situation continues to brighten. The following are the new cases reported: Mattie Bridges, Nita Bohner, Raoul Gauthier, Miss R. Gumbrell, Miss Alberta Berger and Miss Laura Cummings. Deaths: G. D. Berry, Henry Laroque, Miss Pelrie and Joseph Ducid.

Gas Generator Wrecks a Building.

PIQUA, O., Nov. 10.—The gas generator in the factory of the Piqua Hosiery company exploded, causing a panic among the 100 girls on the floor. The building was wrecked. Lizzie Burk was probably fatally burned, and Bertha Ing's was terribly injured. The others escaped.

EVERY SEAT TAKEN, LAST NIGHT

Interest in the Revival Meetings Shows no Signs of Abatement—Mr. Gell's Talk on "Knocking Away the Props."

The Casino, last night, was packed, every seat being taken. It is very evident that Mr. Gell's talks are attractive to the business men of the city, for a great many of them were present, last night; in fact, there were about as many men as women in the audience, which is unusual in revivals.

Mr. Gell was in charge of the opening service, and after a brief song service he read and explained several portions of scripture that concern Christians to be "a separate and a peculiar people, zealous of good works."

After prayer by Rev. Dr. Gordon, Mr. Gell began talking on "Knocking out the props." The props were excuses that men often give for not being Christians, and by using scriptural and every day illustrations he cleared up many of these difficulties.

The text was Psalm xxxix:7: "And now, Lord, what wilt thou do for me? My hope is in thee?" The first prop was: I am not good enough. Waiting to get better. Standing on the street some day you receive on the face a big spot of mud from a passing wagon. You would not wait for it to drop off, but would clean it off as soon as possible. Sin does not wear off or grow better, but that makes no difference, for Christ "came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance." "They that are whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick." You say you know that, so much the worse, for "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas. iv:17.

Prop number two: Waiting until I am sure of holding out. How absurd for a man to say he is waiting until he can hold out when he is far from being a Christian or before he begins. Does a man expect to get enough of good to fore he begins to live forty years? What if after two years he dies? What he wants is enough to start. All we need is this day, grace for each day,—five as this day, our daily bread." Having trusted Jesus Christ to save you your position is very much like that of the man who is laid on a very powerful battery; it is not a question of his holding on or the electric current contracts the muscles of the hands so strongly that he can't let go. So the Holy Spirit holds you and in the hand of Christ so firmly that you can't let go. Isa. xli:13: "For I, the Lord thy God, will hold thy right hand."

Prop number three: I don't like a hypocrite and I don't like to be one. A doctor in Central New York was worn out, almost sick to cover work when a girl came from a poor man to go away upon the mountain to help his sick boy. The doctor did not like to go, but he went and found a boy who had died. Was the doctor a hypocrite because he did a right and just thing? He is the more a man who does a right when he does not feel like it. I you want asking I will guarantee that you get it but you must be willing to do what God says.

A story said to have been told by Sam Jones illustrated the position of man wanting to feel that he ought to be a Christian. In the woods on a cold winter's day a man found a woodman in a stormy place, alone with his axe upon him. When asked why he sat there he said, "He was waiting to wait because he would work." The way to persevere was to get his axe and go to work. So to obtain feeling that Christ and go to work for Him.

If you want physical health the physical exercises, intellectual and physical exercises, and intellectual exercises are wanted take spiritual exercises.

Prop number four: Waiting a full church in order to get right. There are too many people in the church who are not in the church. You must get ready, at a mighty long wait but it is your excuse. Apply your mind and reason to the society you joined, the Masses or Old Fellows, and if the same principal is applied to everything you will not find anything—not even your wife.

An architect was carving a beautiful figure from a stone in the dome of a large building when he fell and was killed. His fall did not mar the beauty or symmetry of the figure he had carved, neither does the fall of a Christian or a minister of the gospel change the beauty of Jesus Christ. Let these props all be gone. "And now, Lord, what wilt thou do for me? My hope is in thee." Neither church nor friends can save you for "no man can reach unto thy Father, but me," said Jesus. He alone can lift us up so that our feet will not touch the chilling waters as we pass through the valley of death.

Mills, druggist, Middletown.

MARK TWAIN'S "PUDD'NHEAD WILSON."

To Be Played at the Casino, Monday Evening, by the Original New York Company.

The announcement that Mark Twain's "Pudd'nhead Wilson" is coming to the Casino next Monday night, and that it will be presented by the No. 1 company which played in the piece during its long run at the Herald Square Theatre, New York city, will awaken the interest of our representative theatre goers.

The Albany Evening Journal of Oct. 16th has the following to say of the production as it was presented at the Harmanus Bleecker Theatre in that city and as it will be given here:

The story of "Pudd'nhead Wilson" is well known to all admirers of Mark Twain and, thanks to its clever dramatization by Frank Mayo, to thousands of playgoers. The idea of the change is as old as literature, but the Twain setting is absolutely unique. The tell-tale "thumb marks" have everything to do with the warp, wool and coloration of the story, and strongly emphasize the originality of the author.

The mingling of the race prejudice and the "thumb marks" are the potentialities of one of the best American plays, the altogether excellent "Pudd'nhead Wilson." The audience lives along with the players, and reaches the southern atmosphere laden with the fragrance of the pines; becomes acquainted with the living, breathing people; smiles and sighs with Pudd'nhead; laughs at the typical country sheriff and the incomparable jury; feels a touch of true sentiment at the love of Roy and Chambers, and becomes a part of the ensemble until the final curtain falls and the thought comes that there is another world without the playhouse. It is a delightful and long-to-be-remembered experience.

As to the players: The title role was admirably played by Edwin Mayo, quite as well as by his father, to whom in countenance, method and voice he bears a remarkable resemblance. The Chambers of Mr. Johnson, Tom Dilsell of Mr. Cammer, Roxy of Miss Dwyer, Roy of Miss Mayo, were all examples of fine dramatic art.

Every detail was perfect and every character conscientiously and excellently acted.

The sale of seats will open to-morrow morning, at H. S. Danenberg & Sons. Prices for this engagement will be $1.50 for the loge and box seats, orchestra $1.75 and 50 cents, gallery 25 cents.

IS IT CURABLE?

A Question Often Asked by Those Afflicted With Piles.

Is it a curable? Is local inflammation cured? Of course, if properly treated, such piles.

Prolapsed piles become afflicted with piles and ask some old "chonic" who is always persisted in the wrong treatment and naturally he discourages them by telling them that their case is hopeless.

They in turn discourage others, and thus a disease that can in every case be cured by careful and skilful handling is allowed to sap the energy of thousands who might free themselves of the trouble in a few days.

Pyramid Pile Cure will cure the most aggravated case of hemorrhoids in an astonishing short time. It relieves the congested parts, reduces the tumors instantly no matter how large, allays the inflammation and stops the itching or bleeding at once.

Thousands who had resorted to expensive surgical treatment have been cured by the Pyramid Pile Cure—a number of instances persons who had spent months in a hospital under a pile specialist.

It is a remedy that none need fear to apply even to the most aggravated, swollen and inflamed hemorrhoidal tumors.

If you are afflicted with this stubborn disease you can master it and master it quickly.

This remedy is no longer an experiment, but a medical certainty. It is manufactured by the Pyramid Drug Co., of Akron, Mich.

Druggists sell it at 50 cents per box. It is becoming the most popular pile cure this country has ever known and druggists everywhere are ordering it for their customers.

J. M. Thieswood, of Groesbeck, Tex., says: "I was laid up by a split of indigestion and food and sluggish. I take two of Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers at night and he is all right the next morning. Many thousands of others do the same thing. Do you? W. D. Olney.

Consumption in its advanced stages is beyond power of man to cure. It can be prevented, though, by timely use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, nature's own remedy for coughs and colds.

ON THE TIP OF THE TONGUE.

A worker at the revival services now being held in the Casino wonders why it is that a rainy night keeps the people away from the religious meetings in churches, yet packs the theatre. Doubtless it may be explained by the same reason which accounts for the rains in the grand stand at the race track during the Orange County Circuit, which are never seen at ordinary race meets.

Some of the boys played a "we close at 7 during revivals" card in the window of a North street cigar store, Monday night, and the proprietor "threw a fit" when he returned at 8 o'clock and was asked why he had not closed as agreed.

The Ontario and Western band seems to have stirred up some "ruffles" in the placid musical circles of this city. The project has the backing of several well known people and the players are enthusiastically preaching the future of the organization. John Wilson is to be the drum major.

Only employees of the Ontario and Western will be allowed to join the band. The new instruments are to be shown in Van Duzer & Smith's windows, Saturday night.

The esteemed Times continues to make snipes for the new Council. It fails, however, to make any guesses on "official papers."

Alderman Crans changed his mind about the Chestnut street sewer after election day. At the meeting of the Board two weeks ago he gave notice that he should attempt to pass the sewer over the Mayor's veto. Monday night, however, when asked about it, he remarked: "Let it go," and it was not brought up.

The front entrances to the High School are locked during sessions, and the only way anyone having business there can get in is by a rear door, through a narrow stone stairway. It would seem as if one of the main doors should be left open for the accommodation of the public.

NO GUESS WORK HERE.

All Middletown People Have To Do Is To Follow the Example of Fellow Citizens.

Facts are stubborn. Some may be disputed. None can be disproved.

A fact is the opposite of fiction; It always hedge about with proof; Has to stand the test of investigation; Or it drifts to the realm of doubt.

Investigate the following: The closer the scrutiny the more convincing the result.

A Middletown citizen speaks here: Speaks from experience and conviction; Relates facts—no born facts; That may be disputed, but cannot be disproved.

Cyrus Coddington, of No. 150 Wickham avenue, says:

"Seven years ago I had an attack of kidney complaint, a very severe attack. It let me and I was not again bothered until a very short time ago." This was his first introduction to the repair shop. Seven years after he was on the streets again. Continuing he says: "The last time it did not take so long to straighten me out and I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for it. I got a box at J. E. Mills' drug store. I couldn't stoop or lift and the urine went wrong. After using Doan's Kidney Pills the pain left me and the urine righted its li. They did all that could be expected of them."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold for 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for United States. Sent by mail on receipt of price. For sale by all dealers.

Remember the name Doan's, and take no substitute.

Some Foolish People

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 25c and 50c. Trial size free. At all druggists.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The following was the reading of the thermometer at 10:00 a. m. today:

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 10, 1897.

Among the minor results of the election was the choice of Miss Arria S. Huntington as School Commissioner in Syracuse. She ran on the Democratic ticket and led all the candidates for places on the school board. She is the first woman ever elected to office in Syracuse.

A prominent Republican suggests that the settlement of the post office wrangle be left to Mayor Berry and ex-Mayors Isenman, Bailey and Stansbury. They are above factional considerations and influences, and might be depended on to deal fairly with the claims of all candidates and make a choice that will represent the preferences of at least the Republicans of the city. It isn't likely that the machine managers would consent to this arrangement, for they are not willing that Mayor Berry shall have any voice in party affairs, but the suggestion that the matter be left to the Mayors isn't a bad one.

The canvassing of Orange county's vote ought to be serious business, but there is a touch of grotesque humor in the performance now going on in Goshen. It is enough to make a horse laugh to have "Charlie" Boyd and "Lew" Goodsell of the canvassing committees coming before the Board and gravely asking for instructions from Chairman "Jim" Bruzer. No one ever suspected the Chairman of being an authority on the election law, nor of knowing more concerning the powers and duties of canvassers than Messrs. Boyd and Goodsell, but he plays the part assigned him fairly well, though sometimes he plainly shows that the absurdity of the situation is borne in on him.

FROM OUTSIDE THE BREASTWORKS

From the Albany Argus.

But amid all the gloom that enshrouds the Republican camp one prominent citizen has gathered to himself large numbers of comfort. Driven out of national, State and local politics, where once he figured, the poor wood-pulp statesman, Warner Miller, rises far out on the plain outside the breastworks and remarks: "The lesson of the defeat of the Republican party is so plain, so evident that the casual observer cannot fail to see and understand it." He did not need to add the reason—Tom Platt and his supremacy.

MRS. NACK TESTIFIES.

GOES ON THE STAND AND SWEARS THORN'S LIFE AWAY.

Tells the whole story of the Crime—Lured Goldensuppe to Woodside Where Thorn shot him—Disposing of the Body—Lawyer Howe's Cross-Examination.

New York, Nov. 10.—The Queens county court house was thronged at an early hour this morning. Judge Smith took his seat at 9:30.

When Thorn was brought in, Lawyer Howe told him of Mrs. Nack's confession and showed him a paper with large headlines: "Mrs. Nack Turns State's Evidence." Thorn looked at it intently and his face flushed as he handed it back.

Mrs. Nack entered the court room in company with a deputy sheriff and stood within three feet of the prisoner, who eyed her closely and as he did so the flush faded from his cheek and he became very pale.

Mrs. Nack was becomingly dressed and looked well. She was ordered to take the stand and passed within a foot of the prisoner.

Judge Weller began the direct examination immediately. He gradually led up to the time when she left her husband and began living with Goldensuppe. By degrees he brought witness to the morning of Friday, June 25, the day the crime was committed. She said she and Goldensuppe left New York between 9 and 10 o'clock, crossed the ferry and took a trolley car which left them at the Woodside cottage.

"I had a key and opened the front door and told Goldensuppe to enter and examine the house, while I went to look at the yard. He went upstairs and I heard a shot. Martin Thorn came running down saying: 'I've shot him; he's dead.' He was very excited and I was half dead."

"Thorn told me to go home and come back at 5 o'clock. When I returned in the evening Thorn had everything packed in bundles. He handed me a bundle which he said contained Goldensuppe's clothes. He took another wrapped in grey colored paper, which he said was Goldensuppe's head and that it was done up in plaster of Paris. We took the trolley and ferry boat for New York. Can't say what ferry."

"When we reached New York I went home. Thorn went somewhere else. I cut open the bundle and found Goldensuppe's clothes."

"I saw Thorn that evening again. He told me to meet him the following morning at the Thirty-fourth street ferry. I don't know where he put the head. He told me he had done away with it. It met him the next day at the ferry. Then we arranged about hiring a carriage."

The witness then detailed how the other packages were brought in the surrey and deposited in the river and the Oden woods, near High Bridge. She spoke indistinctly English, with a strong German accent.

During her recital Thorn's lawyers had chairs near the witness. Thorn listened to every word with lips closely compressed and hands clasped over his knees. Frequently his lips became dry and parched, and occasionally he moistened them with his tongue. His face was stolid, but his eyes were watchful. When not gazing at his accuser, Thorn cast furtive glances into the gallery.

The witness told of purchasing the oilcloth and other wrappings and of the letters from Thorn. During her examination Mrs. Nack broke down and cried. Thorn seemed to enjoy this discomfort.

Mr. Howe began the cross-examination just before 11 o'clock. He began in a very insinuating manner, and soon made witness acknowledge that the Woodside cottage had been hired for the sole purpose of killing Goldensuppe; that she had carried him there, and when she brought the oilcloth and wrappings it was for the purpose of packing portions of the body after Thorn had finished his ghastly work.

Mr. Howe made the woman acknowledge the most damaging, cold-blooded preparations for getting rid of Goldensuppe, and then asked her if she cried when any of these preparations were being made. To these questions she answered no, but said with tears in her eyes that she did cry when Thorn told her that he and shot Goldensuppe; she could not help it.

She acknowledged living with Goldensuppe for a year, but declared she never loved any man but her husband, at which some spectators laughed and Thorn smiled. She declared that she did not love Thorn, but feared him, for he looked her and threatened to kill her if she did not love him.

Mr. Howe became very aggressive and wanted to know how many babies she had killed in her career as a midwife. She denied that she had killed any. She said she confessed to get the matter off her mind.

At this point Mr. Howe left the court room and Thorn and Mr. Moss had an earnest conference.

When Mr. Howe returned he endeavored to startle witness into admitting that she shot Goldensuppe and cut up the body, but she yelled "No" in a frantic manner.

Mr. Howe was granted permission to resume his cross-examination.

Judge Weller then subjected witness to a re-direct examination, which elicited nothing new but strengthened her former story.

DEAT THORN OUT.

Lawyer Friend replying to Howe's strictures on Mrs. Nack's confession said: "I know from a good source that Thorn was too anxious to avail himself of an opportunity to turn State's evidence. It was a spirit between us and I came under the wire first."

OBITUARY.

Rev. Amos Ackerly.

Rev. Amos Ackerly, a widely known Methodist preacher, who from 1839 to 1871, when he retired from active work, was pastor of many churches in this and adjacent counties, died, Saturday, at the home of his daughter in Kingston, aged seventy-eight years.

He was the father of Rev. J. W. Ackerly, of Matteawan.

Among the pastorates of the dead clergyman were the following in this city: Cornwall, 1846; Clifton, '54; Deposit, '55; Monticello, '59-'60; Wurtsboro, '61; Middletown, '62-'63; Delhi, '69-'70.

Dr. DeWitt C. Jayne.

Dr. DeWitt C. Jayne, one of the oldest and best known physicians in Orange county, died at his home in Florida, at 10:30 Tuesday night, in his eighty-first year. Death was due to the infirmities of old age. He began to fail several months ago and became very feeble, and for the last two weeks his condition was such that no hopes of his recovery were entertained.

Dr. Jayne was a son of Stephen and Sarah Marvin Jayne and was born at Florida. He was educated at the Montgomery Academy and at Farmers' Hall Academy in Goshen, and having decided to adopt the medical profession began the study of medicine with Dr. S. R. Barlow at Florida. He graduated from the Medical Department of Yale College in 1839 and at once established himself for the practice of his profession in his native place. Although a firm believer in the principles of Homeopathy he yielded for a time to local prejudice and practiced in both schools, but once established in the confidence of the people he conformed himself strictly to Homeopathy and soon built up a very large practice. He was a very skillful physician and merited the confidence which his patients reposed in him. He was president of the Orange County Homoeopathic Medical Society and in 1867 was a member of the American Institute of Homoeopathy. He was one of the original Board of Trustees of the Middletown State Hospital.

He served as a director of the Chester Bank for nearly half a century and was a director of the Goshen and Deerpark Railroad Company from the time of its organization.

He was a member of the convention held at Saratoga in 1854, when the Republican party in this State was organized.

He married Mary Augusta, daughter of the late Edwin P. Seward, who survives him. She is a sister of Dr. F. W. Seward, of Goshen.

The funeral will be held from his late residence at 3 o'clock, Friday afternoon.

CANVASSING THE VOTE.

Chairman James E. Brazier, Running on Questions Under the Election Law.

GOSHEN, N. Y., Nov. 9.—When the ARGUS went to press, Tuesday afternoon, the Board of Canvassers' committee were busily engaged in opening sealed packages of ballots.

At 3:40 Supervisor Boyd and his committee, who are canvassing the second district ballots, came before the Board and announced that the committee had struck a snag. Among three ballots returned as void was one from the First District of the First Ward of Middletown on which the voter had placed a cross in the Republican circle and crosses directly in front of the names of Schultz, Wood, Day and May, Democrats, and not in the voting space prepared for such marks. He read from the statute, section 81, which states that a "cross shall be made before the name of the candidate to be voted for." He said the decision of the matter would establish a precedent which would be followed during the remaining canvass of the votes.

Mr. Goodsell added that inasmuch as that section of the statute was plain, he thought the vote should be counted. Mr. Ketchum asked if the vote was counted by the inspectors. Mr. Boyd replied "No." Mr. Isaman then took the floor and said that he believed that the voter's intent was to vote for the names crossed, and should be counted. Mr. Ketchum read section 105, which says the cross shall be placed in the voting space.

Mr. Brazier remarked: "The chair does not care to settle it," but a few seconds later he announced that the chair would settle it, and that the vote should be counted.

Mr. Ketchum said that the matter was one for the judgment of the inspectors, and not that of the Board of Supervisors.

Mr. Boyd took the cue and remarked that he did not care to appeal from the decision of the chair, and the chairman having recovered his breath from the decision which he had recited, to all appearances, from memory, and in a voice which frightened even the Republicans present, said:

"If there is no appeal from the decision of the chair the committee will return and canvass the vote."

While the work was going on slowly in the committee room, Mr. Wilson moved an adjournment until 10:30, Wednesday morning.

Among those who were present at this session of the board were Arthur A. McLean, State Committeeman from Newburgh, Proprietor Friend, of the Newburgh Register, Editor Drake, of the Independent Republican, J. A. Mills, of New Hampton, and Randall Stevens, the latter the late antagonist of John L. Bradley, for Supervisor of Wawayanda.

TODAY'S SESSION.

At this morning's session Mr. Ketchum introduced a resolution relating, yesterday's action of the Board in resolving to go behind the returns and open the packages of ballots, and instructing the committees to do this with the Newburgh returns, which were passed, yesterday, to the effect that the Board, under the Attorney General's ruling, might canvass and declare the result of the election of city officers.

The resolution was lost, as no doubt Mr. Ketchum expected it would be.

The canvassing committee asked instructions as to how a ballot marked under the Democratic star and the National Democratic ship could be counted. Chairman Brazier declared it void and the ballot went into the soup, although the election law seems to provide for its being counted and there is no shadow of doubt as to the intent of the voter.

Mr. Crane, counsel for Mr. Shultz, told the ARGUS's representative that Mr. Beidel had gained one vote from the figures as published.

MIDDLETOWN'S SCHOOL CENSUS.

Some Interesting Figures from the Enumerators' Reports.

Frank Schoonmaker, John T. Robertson and George F. Bryant, the enumerators appointed at Albany to take Middletown's school census, have completed their work and find that there are 2,808 children in the city between the ages of four and eighteen years. Of these 1,423 are boys and 1,423 are girls.

They found five children between the ages of twelve and eighteen years who cannot read or write.

The census of 1895 showed 3,419 between the ages of five and twenty-one, the old age limits.

The census of 1895 showed 2,436 between the ages of four and sixteen, and the census of 1897 shows 2,551 between the same ages, an increase of 125.

COUNTY CANDIDATES' EXPENSES.

Further Statement as to Election Expenses cited at Goshen.

The following additional statements of election expenses have been filed in the County Clerk's office:

James McGarvey, Prohibition candidate for Assembly, 50 cents.

D. W. Bogart, Republican county Committee, $20.00; railroad fare, $4.50; travel, $12.50; postage, 60 cents; printing, $4.50. Total, $22.10.

L. F. Goodsell, Republican County Committee, $100.

W. A. Keeler, Prohibition candidate for Coroner, nothing.

J. N. Reilly had no expenses and adds "I hardly know what to swear to but I can find plenty to swear at."

Commissioners in a Port Jervis Case.

H. W. Higgins and Daniel Finn, and Maj. Weston, of Newburgh, went to Port Jervis, today, in connection with a matter, in which they are commissioners.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Business Transacted at Last Night's Regular Meeting—New Regulation in regard to Sending Disorderly Pupils to the Public School—High School Library Rules—Bills Audited.

The Board of Education held a regular meeting, Tuesday evening, all the members and Superintendent Tuttle being present. Mr. Wiggins having been called out Mr. Powellson took the chair.

Mr. Hartford reported the sale of four old desks for $4 and the money was ordered deposited with the City Treasurer.

It was voted that no disorderly or disobedient pupil should be sent to the training school until printed notice from the superintendent had been served on the child's parents by the board office and affidavit of such service filed with the clerk.

A draft was ordered drawn to the order of the Grand Rapids Furniture Co. for $525.23 in settlement of its bill.

The Benton avenue committee was authorized to put a new steam pipe in the basement of that building.

The High School committee recommended the following regulations for the High School library and they were adopted:

All teachers are at liberty to use the library at their convenience, keys to the cases being supplied for that purpose. Teachers taking books from the library are required to leave a memorandum of same with their names at the principal's desk. On returning books to the library teachers will for their own interest make sure this change is carried out.

Pupils may obtain books from the library by so arranging to become responsible for same as indicated. Pupils are not to be allowed free access to the book cases.

The following bills were audited and drafts ordered drawn in payment:

AWARDS BY A REFEREE.

Judge Beattie's Findings in a Suit Involving Large Amounts.

Judge Beattie, as referee in the suit of Howard Thornton, as receiver of the Beveridge Brewing Company of Newburgh, against Mrs. Margaret Williams, of Newark, executrix of the will of C. E. Williams, president of the company, has just rendered a decision. Receiver Thornton sued to recover $45,000 from the Williams estate, while Mrs. Williams claimed $87,000 from the brewing company. Judge Beattie finds that $13,000 is due Mrs. Williams and that the Williams estate is indebted to the company to the amount of $75,000 and $10,000 interest.

HE KNOWS MEEHAN.

Joseph Kaine, of this city, knew him and has started for Rochester.

Joseph Kaine, of this city, read Tuesday night's ARGUS about the death of John Meehan under the wheels at Rochester, and he at once reported to Capt. Weber that he knew the victim, and said he would at once go there to arrange for his friend's burial. Meehan has no relatives here.

Two Slight Wrecks on the Erie.

There were two slight wrecks on the Erie, Tuesday. The locomotive drawing an east bound freight train broke loose at Greyhound, and the air brakes were so suddenly that two cars jumped the tracks.

AT THE COUNTY SEAT.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

Examination Week—A Wedding Party's Private Pullman—Amateur Dramatic Club Organize—Improvement at the Electric Light Plant—G. A. R. and S. of V. Fair—Death of Silas Crozier—An Unnecessary Southing.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

The pupils at the High School are undergoing examinations for advancement this week.

A special Pullman day coach was picked up at Goshen by train 14, last night. It was chartered for the bridal couple, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jenkins, who were married at Chester, last evening.

The supper given by the Ladies' Aid Society on Monday evening netted $50.

The Town Board will conclude the auditing of bills next Saturday afternoon.

The Goshen Amateur Dramatic Club has been organized. Its officers are: President, Robert Rodman; Vice President, Rommie Kelley; Secretary, George D. Williams; Treasurer, Brewster Clark; Business Manager, Clarence E. Clark; Instructor B. K. K. It is expected that a play will be produced during the Christmas holidays.

The Goshen scholastic football team will invade Liberty, Saturday.

The building of an addition to the Light and Power Co.'s plant is finished. The interior masonry is now being constructed. The new plant will be practically a duplicate in regard to power of the one now in use. A 15 horse power Corliss engine, weighing 37,000 pounds, will be put in. Its fly wheel measures 13 feet in diameter and will weigh 16,000 pounds. The dynamo are of recent Edison pattern and will reduce the cost of producing light in the saving of power, etc. The full power is developed at a speed of 600 revolutions per minute while those now in use make 1,700 revolutions. The new engine and dynamo will operate 1,700 lights.

The Grand Army and Sons of Veterans combined fair will open at Music Hall week from tonight and will continue until the end of the week. Extensive preparations have been made and the management is sanguine of a great success.

Silas, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Crozier, died in this village at 12 o'clock, noon, yesterday. He had been ill some time, never having fully recovered from an attack of brain fever in his infancy. The combined effects of the results of this illness and a spinal trouble caused his death. The funeral will be held from his parents' home, tomorrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

In the midst of a pouring rain, yesterday morning, a young man employed in one of Goshen's prominent business establishments was driving the delivery wagon down Main street. He was very comfortable inside his closed and covered wagon and he didn't care a rap for the waiving elements on side. But when he was passing the Orange Hotel something happened and on investigation he found a trace had broken. He was obliged to lead the horse down through the muddy streets to his place of business and the unexpected thoughts that kept his mind busy would shock the righteous. But when he arrived at his destination another investigation showed that the trace has simply become loose and instead of breaking and his seeking in the mud and rain was unnecessary. It isn't safe to ask him to dry way he walked.
